

I do not think that XM radio should be limited to just music. I find the weather and traffic an invaluable tool. If broadcast radio and the National Association of Broadcasters thinks it's an infringement, then let them give the SAME service... without nauseating commercials. I have voluntarily paid for this service and feel threatened by the National Association of Broadcasters for wanting to control the airwaves. Leave XM radio alone.